

To Whom It may concern: XM radio local weather & news is an enormous benefit to me while I drive from my home in Lafayette, LA to my work in Port Fourchon LA. I get the benefit of wide area weather basically on demand VS hoping I catch a local weather station on my way through various town. This service should be encouraged rather than stifled. It makes for a safer travel period.

Mike Chiconsky